Detachment Updates

Calls for Service of Note

Break and Enter – Two of the reported Break and Enter calls for service were deemed to be Mental Health related and the appropriate resources were provided to the complainant with our Mobile Mental Health and Addictions Response Team (MMHART).

One of the Break and Enters is still under investigation with an identified suspect.

Charge have been laid in two of the Break Enters. One was Domestic related.

Mischief – $13,000.00 worth of damage to newly poured concrete was reported.

One Mischief charge was Domestic related.

Property Related - The Community Street Crimes Unit (CSCU) is conducting an investigation into the theft of a number of enclosed trailers containing large amounts of tools in the South Bruce area. There are a number of Persons of Interest that have been identified in this investigation. We would like to remind the public that if they have information regarding stolen property they can contact the OPP at our non-emergency line (1-888-310-1122) or Crime Stoppers if they wish to remain anonymous.

Two significant property crime investigations were concluded in November – one involving a corroboration between Owen Sound Police Service, the OPP Regional Support Unit and the Grey Bruce CSCU and another involving South Bruce frontline officers, Emergency Response Team members, Canine, Aviation and CSCU in Huron-Kinloss. The Owen Sound/Georgian Bluffs investigation resulted in the execution of nine search warrants – drugs, weapons and currency were seized. The Huron-Kinloss investigation resulted in the recovery of over $60,000.00 worth of stolen property.

Traffic - South Bruce OPP officers participated in the Festive RIDE Campaign setting up 98 RIDE checkpoints across South Bruce during the festive season. This enforcement resulted in 2 30 day driver's licence suspension due to registering a Warn and three Impaired Driving charges. One Impaired Driving arrest occurred due to the result of a Motor Vehicle Collision.

- Presentation on Drugs/Alcohol, Sexual Consent and Charges under the Criminal Code with two grade 9 Boys Phys-Ed classes
- The SRO judged the Classroom Christmas Door Decorating Contest at Huron Heights Public School.
- The SRO participated in the Santa Claus Parade at St. Anthony's School.
- The SRO along with Community Service Officer organized a Christmas Contest with all 7 Schools within the Municipality of Kincardine and Huron-Kinloss. The contest was for students to decorate LCBO bags with safety messages "Don't Drink and Drive". Approximately 2000 LCBO bags were decorated and distributed between the Kincardine and Lucknow LCBO's to use throughout the Christmas season. Gift cards were purchased by South Bruce OPP from local businesses and both Municipalities provided swag as draw prizes for each school. The contest was well received by all involved including social media and the LCBO employees were also very happy to see this initiative being done. This contest will be done yearly from now on.

- Calls for service attended by the SRO included driving complaints around schools, truancy concerns and drug investigations.
- The SRO ensured visibility when possible on Highway 21 by KTTPS due to complaints of traffic in that area. A collision occurred while she was present on one location at the end of the school day.
