Dear Mayor Eadie:

I am pleased to forward you a copy of the Chamber of Marine Commerce's 2019 Marine Delivers Magazine.

Some of the highlights of this edition include:

- After 60 years, what's next for the Chamber of Marine Commerce?;
- An infographic deep-dive on how Ontario shipping impacts our daily lives;
- The Seaway at 60: A binational waterway prepares for future challenges;
- New technologies being adopted by shipowners to track their vessels and cargo;
- What the world's first fresh-water autonomous ship testing facility has planned in the Great Lakes;
- How collaboration between industry, scientists and the government has saved North Atlantic Right whales and the new frontier in whale detection;
- An interview with LOGISTEC's Madeleine Paquin;
- How the Port of Montreal and the Port of Cleveland are using innovative practices to change how they do business;
- BMO Capital Markets' 2019 economic forecast for the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence region;
- Industry executives' forecasts for the shipping season.

A permanent online version has now been launched at www.MarineDelivers.com/magazine that will be regularly updated throughout the year.

The Chamber of Marine Commerce looks forward to continuing to work with you to promote safe, efficient, economical and environmentally smart marine transportation.

Sincerely yours,

Bruce R. Burrows
President
