Subject: Celebrate National Canadian Film Day!

Hello Deputy Mayor Andrea Clarke,

Celebrate National Canadian Film Day with us on April 17th by spending the day in front of the big screen in our Bruce Power Theatre, where we'll be showing two fantastic films that reflect the resilience of the human spirit.

Run Woman Run (2021) | 11:00 AM

A single mother facing a health scare, decides to transform her life by training for a marathon, proving her resilience to herself and her family. Guided by the spirit of her ancestor, Tom Longboat (Koostachin), a legendary runner, Beck's journey unfolds in a lighthearted and inspiring way.

Brother (2022) | 2:00 PM

"Brother" follows the journey of two Black Canadian brothers, Francis and Michael, growing up in 1990s Scarborough as sons of Caribbean immigrants. Together they explore questions about masculinity, identity, and family while navigating the challenges of being outsiders in a new country.

Members FREE; General Admission applies.

REMINDER - Stories of Love & Loss: Farm Diaries
April 6 | 2 PM - 4 PM

Explore the lives of historic rural residents and farmers with Catharine A. Wilson, who is the Francis and Ruth Redelmeier Professor of Rural History at the University of Guelph and founder of the Rural Diary Archive.

Catharine will discuss the importance of nineteenth- and twentieth- century rural diaries as a window to the past, allowing a peek into the daily social and work life of rural families and their neighbourhoods.
