“A wonderfully frank, highly informative and, most importantly, deeply humane exploration of one of medicine’s most challenging disciplines—emergency medicine.”

— Dr. Vincent Lam, author of the Giller Prize-winning Bloodletting and Other Cures

“Full of the wisdom [Goldman] learned and contains some of the inspiring stories of the most empathetic people he met on his journey.”

— Global Morning

Copies of The Night Shift: Real Life Stories in the Heart of the ER and The Power of Kindness: Why Empathy is Essential in Everyday Life are now available in the Museum's gift shop.

Books will also be available for purchase during the event, which will include an opportunity for book signing.

About Dr. Brian Goldman

Dr. Goldman is one of those rare individuals with great success in not one but several adrenaline-pumping careers. He is a highly regarded emergency physician, host of CBC's award-winning radio show "White Coat, Black Art" and host of the CBC podcast "The Dose" on current events in healthcare.

His inspiring yet bracingly honest TEDx talk about medical errors—which has been viewed on online almost one million times—has cemented his reputation as one of his generation's keenest observers of the culture of modern medicine.

BrushStrokes: Exploring Light and Shadow

Exhibit Opening Event Saturday, June 1 | 2:00 PM - 4:00 PM

Join us for the FREE opening of the juried show, BrushStrokes: Exploring Light and Shadow, happening THIS SATURDAY!

In this exhibit, the Bruce Peninsula Society of Artists pays tribute to the quarterly newsletter, Brushstrokes, which was published by the group from 1997 to 2017. Set against the breathtaking backdrop of the Bruce Peninsula, this collection transcends the conventional boundaries of visual art, capturing the interplay between light and shadows across a rich tapestry of mediums.
