These meet-ups are an opportunity to hear and be heard. Your Zone representative will walk you through ROMA's advocacy priorities and open the floor for feedback and discussion on issues that matter to you.

Book Your Accommodations Today and Save Money!!

Each year ROMA secures a set number of hotel accommodations at discounted rates. These hotel rooms are selling out fast. If you are planning on attending ROMA and need a room, we suggest booking your room today. There are only a few rooms left.

Here is the link to the conference hotels.

Important things to keep in mind when booking your hotel room:

Make sure you provide a credit card when you book your room, if a room reservation does not have a credit card associated with it, the room will be released by the room rate deadline. In this case you will not be guaranteed a hotel room.

All of the conference contracted hotels have deadlines by which the preferred hotel rates are no longer offered. Familiarize yourself with these deadlines for cost savings.

If you receive a message that the “rooms are sold out” when booking, this most likely refers to the rooms available at the preferred conference rate. There may still be rooms available at the hotel, just at a higher cost.

Registration information is here.
