"Ashlee Shingoose":
Honouring the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls, and Two-Spirit People

Hello Deputy Mayor Andrea Clarke,

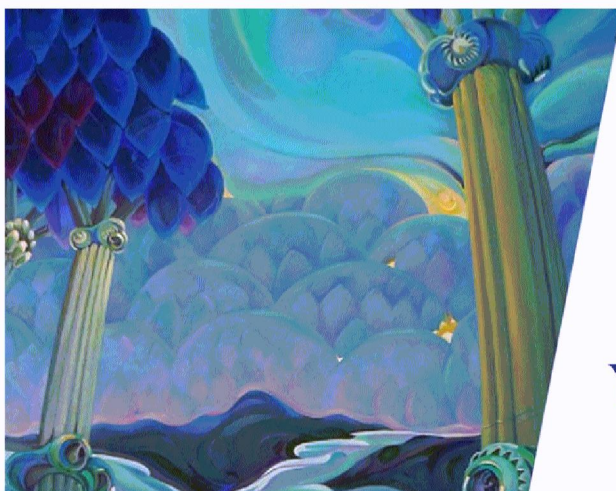

In honour of the National Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls, the Bruce County Museum & Cultural Centre welcomes artists Destiny Roote and Melissa Comyn for a discussion on the opening of the art installation Buffalo Woman.

The installation, which will be on display from May 1-31, is both a tribute and a call to action, urging visitors to acknowledge the ongoing crisis, listen to the stories of those left behind, and stand in solidarity for change.

Artist Discussion and Documentary Screening:
Honouring Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls
May 9 | 7:00 PM - 8:30 PM
Coffee, tea, and treats will be provided.
FREE to attend; Preregister to save your seats

Following the talk, there will be a special screening of CBC's The Fifth Estate documentary, A Sister's Promise, in the Museum's theatre. This documentary investigates Sonya Cywink's death, which has gone unsolved for three decades. Her sister Meggie has taken the search for the truth into her own hands - finding leads that police overlooked and trying to solve the mystery of Sonya's death.
